TO THE STUDENTS

IT IS with genuine pleasure that we, the staff of the 1940 edition of HALLS, CAMPUS, WALLS, present the thirty-first annual of Lenoir Rhyne College.

In compiling this year-book we have departed rather widely from the traditional standards set up in the HACAWA of past years, endeavoring throughout to make it a book truly representative of the students, faculty, and activities of Lenoir Rhyne. The theme, a pictorial and verbal review of the college year 1939-40, is neither elaborate nor formal. We hope that in carrying out this motif the HACAWA will give to you, the student body of our college, pleasure both now and in years to come.

And now, having expressed our objectives, we proudly present to you who have made it possible—the HACAWA of 1940.

CLASS HISTORY

It was September 1936, when, we, the Class of '40, first assembled on the campus of Lenoir Rhyne College, prepared for a four-year flight through the realm of Education. With Vance Daniel at the controls our plane took off, and though we had many forebodings as we winged into space, our pilot guided us safely over the initial lap of our journey.

After a short vacation we returned again to our plane, this time with Emory Carpenter directing our course. By this time we were veteran travelers, and we settled into the routine of flight with far more ease and confidence. When the plane settled to earth late in May our journey was half over, and we again dispersed for a short breathing spell.

As Autumn approached we returned to our meeting place, there to place Tom Foard in command of our Ship of Learning. All too quickly this phase of our flight was completed, and we glided to a smooth three-point landing, only the last lap of our well-charted course remaining ahead of us.

Faith, Hope, and Courage, respectively, had been our watchwords before, but for this, the final hop, it was Confidence. With Melvin Gantt as our pilot we are even now circling Graduation Field, and, though the thrill of accomplishment flows like heady wine through our veins, a pang of nostalgia occasionally grips our hearts. For four unforgettable years we are grateful to Lenoir Rhyne College.

CLASS HISTORY

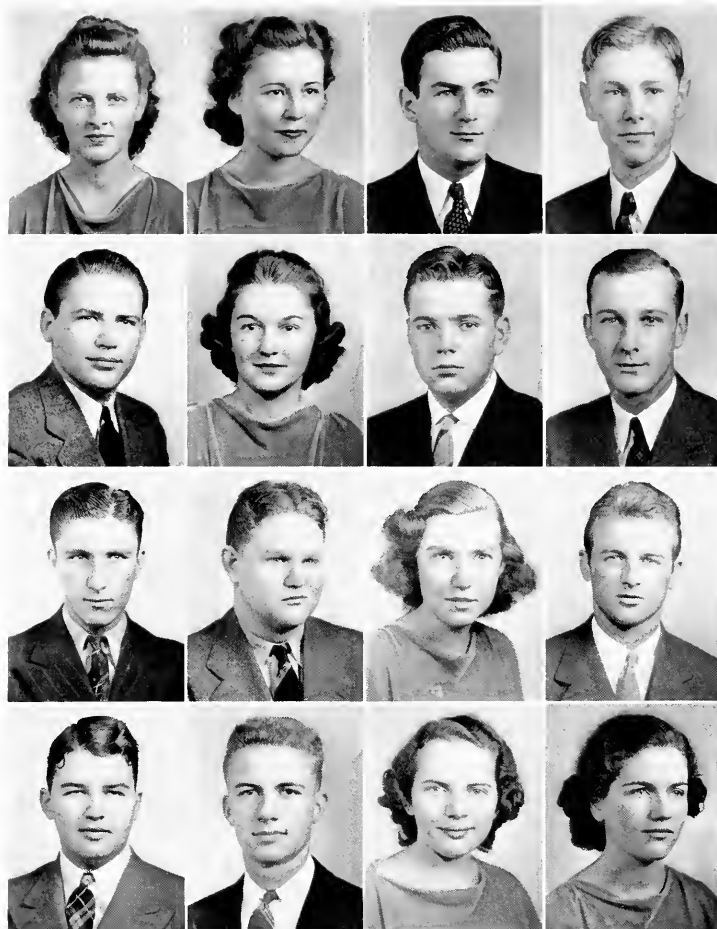

With just one more year to go, we, the Class of '41, find it difficult to realize that our college career is rapidly drawing to a close. Three years have passed swiftly and eventfully, and when we return in September we will be the Senior Class of Lenoir Rhyne College.

When we review the eventful history of our past three years, we feel that our class has accomplished a great deal. Under the capable and enthusiastic leadership of our three presidents, Wilfred Hahn, Bob Caldwell, and Curtis Morehead, members of the class have taken an outstanding part in such activities as debating, journalism, athletics, and dramatics, as well as attaining high marks in scholarship.

As coming events cast their shadows before them, so do the achievements of the class indicate that this Semi-Centennial class will be a credit to Lenoir Rhyne College.

SUZANNE VANDER LINDEN,
Historian.

CLASS HISTORY

Early in September 1938, as we, the incoming freshman class, took our first steps upon the soil of Lenoir Rhyne College, we experienced emotions of varied joy and sorrow. Looking back we knew that our high school days were over, but as we looked forward down the vista of the future, bright visions danced before our eyes—things to be accomplished—things that had never been done before. But first the belt line, bane of freshmen boys, had to be met, conquered, and left to be, or not to be, forgotten. 'T was done, and under the competent guidance of President David Conrad, the Class of '42 started moving on to triumph. As we grew more accustomed to life on the campus of our chosen Alma Mater, we began to avail ourselves of the manifold opportunities available to us as students at Lenoir Rhyne. As a result, many scholastic, athletic, and extra-curricular honors were achieved. At the close of this first happy year the Class of '42 was clicking like a well-oiled machine, and we were anxious to enter into other fields of glory as sophomores.

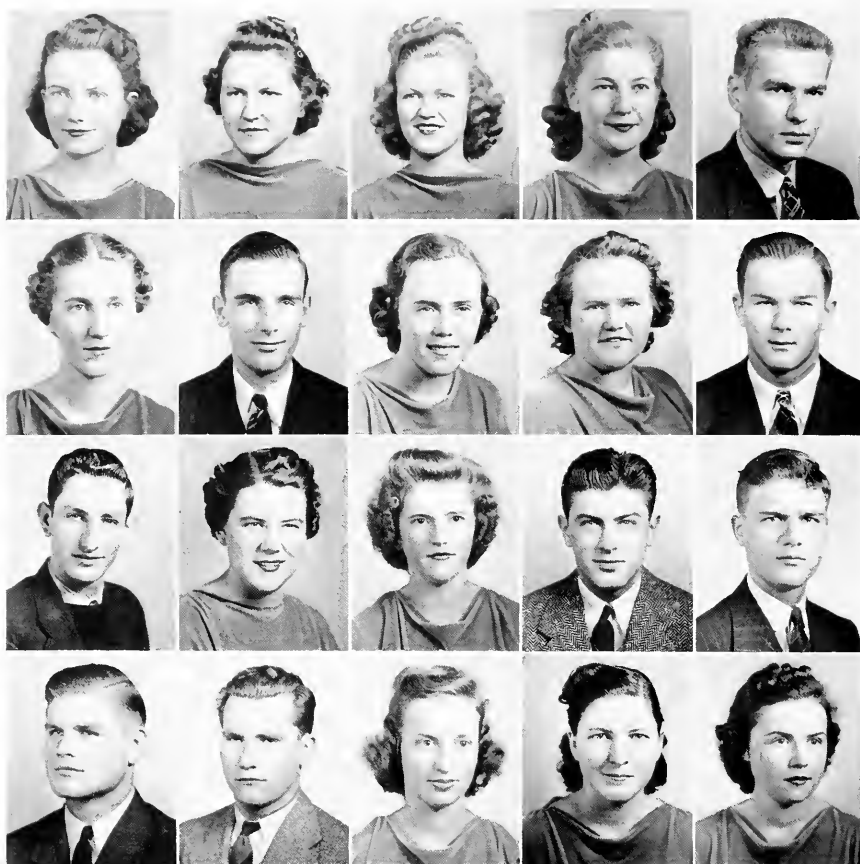

Our sophomore year began most auspiciously with the election of Karl Barger as class president. The major project of the year was the Freshman-Sophomore Party, and we sold "red caps" with a will to the new freshman class. The year has been a happy and successful one, and we look forward with a light heart to the next one.

Years will continue to roll by, but the friendships and pleasures of these two enlightening years will live on in our book of memories.

EDITH RIDENHOUR, Historian.

a large and very bewildering question mark to the Class of '43. Like all "freshies" our first few days in college were filled with multiple mistakes and a resultant desire to be back in the "good-ole-days" when, as Seniors, we were the all-important.

CLASS HISTORY

College?

With high school behind us and with an uncertain future before us, college life presented

However, we quickly learned to accept good-naturedly the pranks and jokes played on us by our upper-classmates, who, with their ready coöperation and fellowship, soon dispelled any doubts that we may have had concerning college life. In a short time we were regarding ourselves as an integral part of Lenoir Rhyne College.

We began our college career by setting up a goal toward which we should work during the next four years. This goal was to be a class worthy of our chosen Alma Mater and of her Christian ideals.

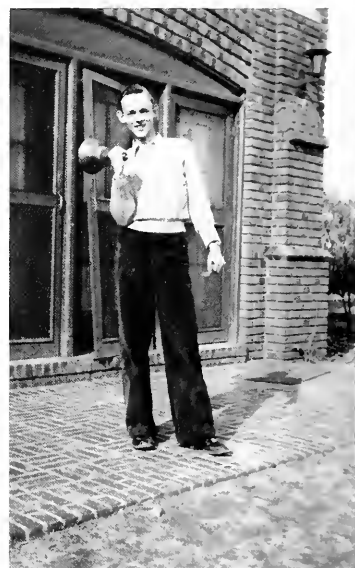

With this aim in mind we chose as our class colors blue and white, which together stand for honor, purity, and dependability.

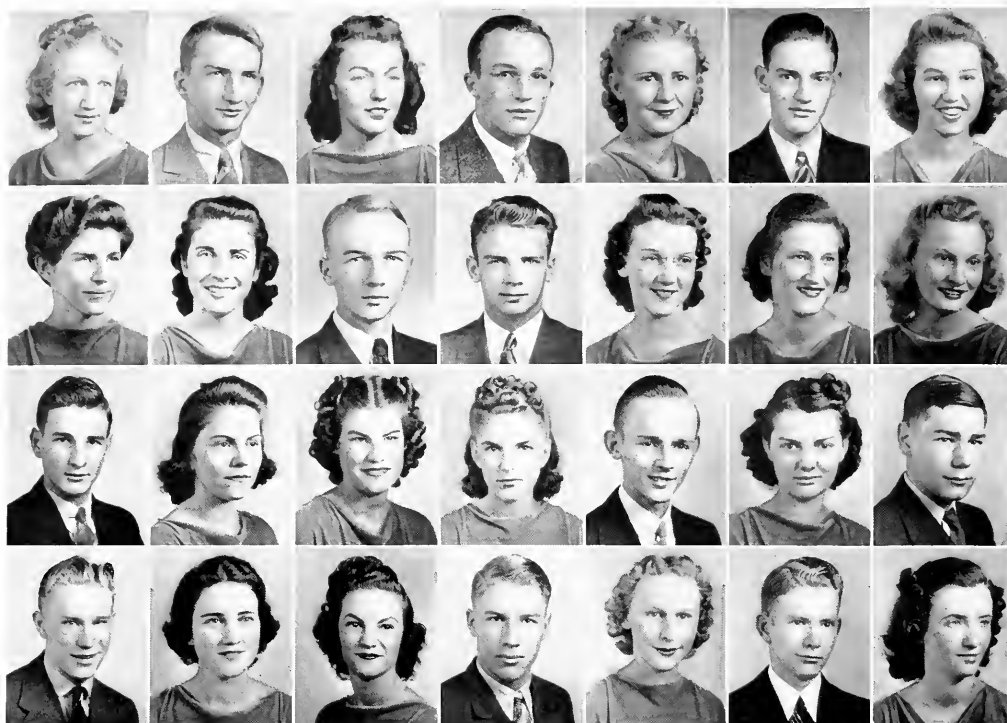

Under the leadership of our class officers, headed by President Hugh Baumgartner, the Freshman Class has become outstanding at Lenoir Rhyne because of its enthusiastic participation in the college activities. Already many of the members of our class have shown their capacity for leadership in the various phases of college life.

Therefore, with our goal clearly in view, and with high courage and hopeful anticipation for the future, the Class of '43, in its first year, has striven to become an integral part of the spiritual, social, and educational Lenoir Rhyne.

CLASS HISTORY

The Commercial Class, although the smallest on the campus, has been far from insignificant in the part it has played at Lenoir Rhyne in the school year 1939-1940.

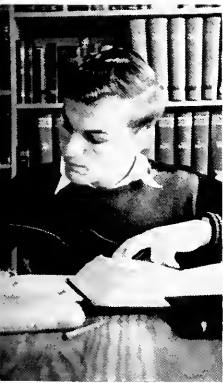

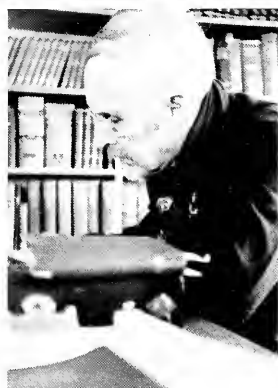

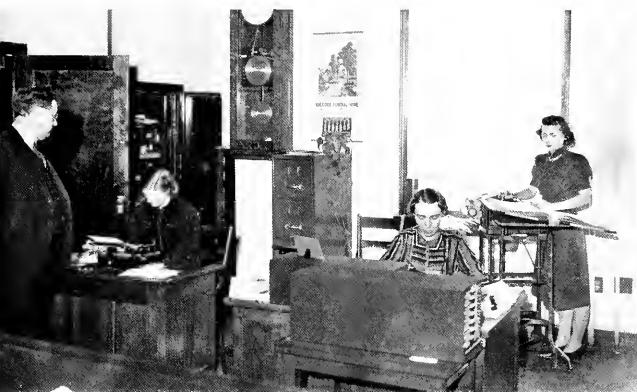

As are most first-year students, we were a little shy, and perhaps just a little frightened when first we came to Lenoir Rhyne. However, when we came to realize that we were an essential part of the college, these doubts were dispelled from our minds and we settled down to enjoy a year of pleasure and accomplishment.

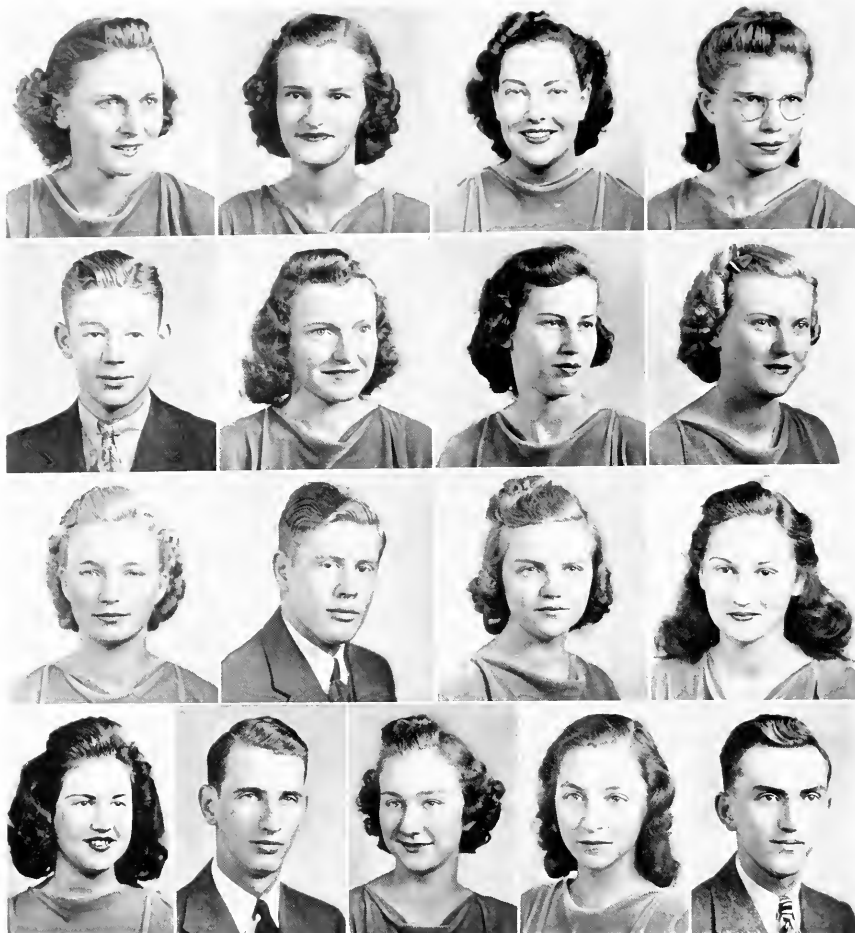

George Davis was elected as president of our class, and under his able leadership we have accomplished a great deal while here. Students of the class have taken part in many extra-curricular activities, and have shown ready coöperation with all agencies of the college.

The year has been a pleasant one, and we feel that we have been fitted for careers in the business world. Looking confidently toward the future, we feel a fleeting sadness when we are faced with the realization that our days as students of Lenoir Rhyne College are now almost over.

THOMAS FOARD

Business Manager

The completion of the 1940 HACAWA almost marks the end of another year of progress for Lenoir Rhyne College, the last of four happy and eventful years for many of the staff members.

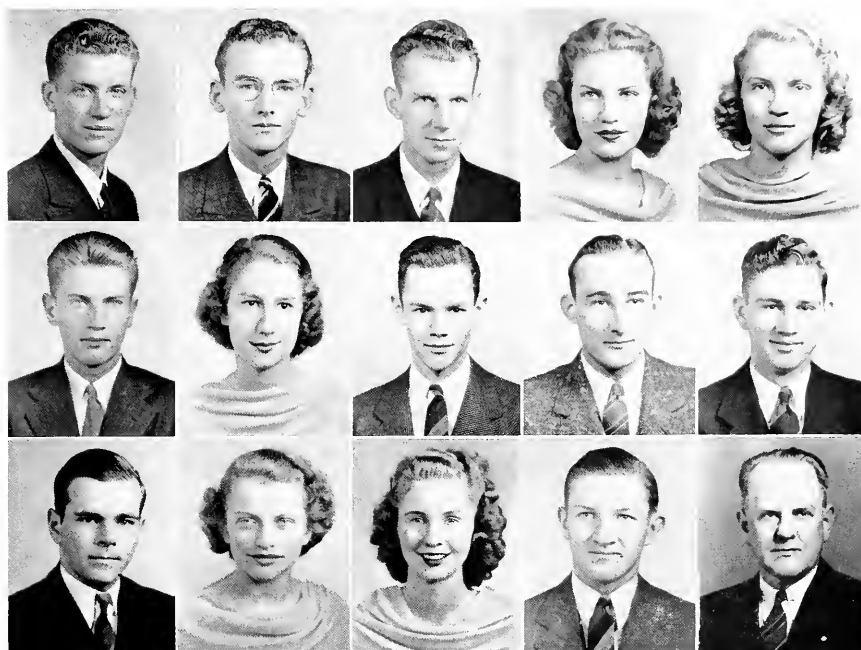

In compiling this, the thirty-first annual of our school, we have striven to give an accurate and colorful account of the school year 1939-

40. In doing so we have departed from the stereotyped form for yearbooks, attempting to produce variation in style, material, and appearance.

It is only through your cooperation that the publication of the HACAWA has been made possible. It is your book, and it is our sincerest hope that it will afford you pleasure now, and in the years to come.

THE LENOIR RHYNEAN

THE LENOIR RHYNEAN STAFF

The Lenoir Rhynean is the weekly student publication of Lenoir Rhyne College. This journalistic 'mouthpiece' is a permanent record of activities of the college and serves as a record for future reference.

Since 1931 this news sheet has been operated directly by the student body, and this year we have striven to portray Lenoir Rhyne as a Christian institution and to picture truthfully the life and activities of our large campus family as the student body would have it portrayed and pictured.

The Editor and Business Manager wish to express their appreciation to the members of the staff who have worked faithfully to get the paper published on time each week, and to the business firms whose advertisements have made publication possible.

On April 22, 1938, the National Convention of Pi Kappa Delta at Topeka, Kansas, granted a charter to the local group organized January 6, 1938, with Dr. Albert Keiser as President and Inez Seagle as Secretary. The local chapter is known as the North Carolina Delta. Lenoir Rhyne speakers, however, had been admitted since 1928 to the general chapter of this, the largest forensic honor society in America.

Members of the local chapter, Alda Gregory, Mary Beth Kuhn, Peggy Setzer, Vance Daniel, Joel Herren, and Dr. Albert Keiser attended the National Convention at Knoxville, Tennessee, March 24, 1940. They took part in oratory, debate, and extemporaneous speaking.

Alpha Tau Kappa was organized as a forensic honor society on May 3, 1934, under the leadership of Dr. Albert Keiser, head of the English Department and Director of Forensic Activities. At present there are two chapters, Lenoir Rhyne Chapter being designated as Alpha.

There are three divisions, namely, oratory, debate, and instruction. In each division there are three degrees: endeavor, honor, and distinction. Jewels on the key indicate the division and degree of each member. The Greek name represents the first letter of the Greek words meaning Truth, Skill, and Beauty.

INTERCOLLEGIATE FORENSICS

The forensic season of 1938-1939 stood out as one of the most successful in the history of the college.

The debates for both men and women were on the question "Resolved, that the United States should cease to use public funds (including credits) for the purpose of stimulating business." The season opened with the Dixie Forensic Tournament at Winthrop, December 1-3, 1938, the speakers being graded individually. The teams were composed of Vance Daniel and Joe Caldwell, affirmative, Connelly Gamble and Joel Herren, negative, Josephine Moretz and Peggy Setzer, affirmative, and Alda Gregory and Mary Beth Kuhn, negative. In the Best Debaters' Contest Joe Caldwell ranked first and Mary Beth Kuhn third among the thirty-odd senior colleges represented. Various divisional honors in individual contests were also won. Alda Gregory being especially outstanding.

On December 9, Joel Herren and Joe Caldwell met a negative team from the University of Alabama in a non-decision debate at Hickory. At the Appalachian Mountain Forensic Tournament at Boone February 3-4, 1939, Mary Alice Yount and Mary Beth Kuhn composed the affirmative, while the negative was upheld by Alda Gregory and Inez Seagle, the mens' team being George Bowden and Joel Herren, affirmative, and Weston Hatfield and Vance Daniel, negative. Besides making fine individual debate records, Lenoir Rhyne won three firsts out of a possible ten in individual contests, the largest of the fourteen schools represented. Jack Mauney won the mens' oratorical contest, and Alda Gregory won the womens' impromptu contest.

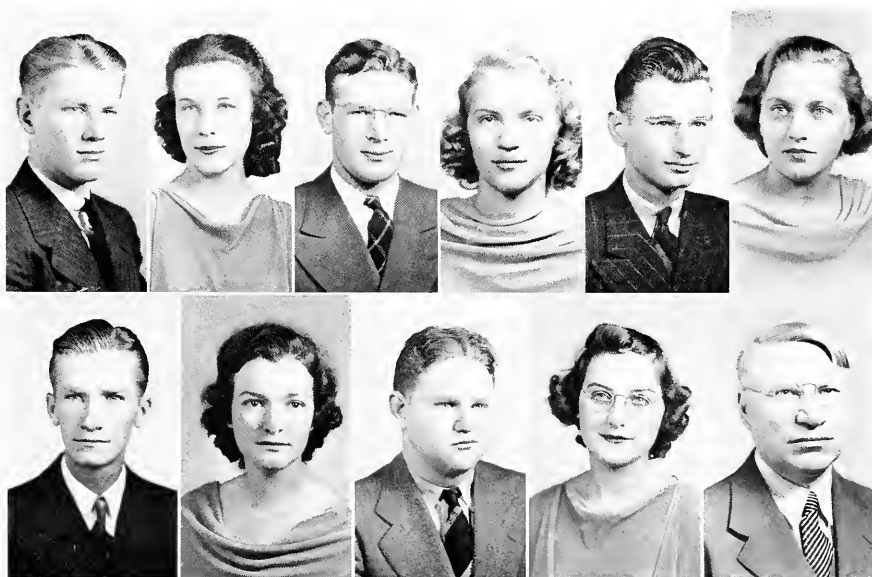

After a number of practice debates with junior colleges, the speakers entered the Southeastern Experimental Tournament and the South Atlantic Forensic Tournament at Salisbury, March 1-4, 1939. In the Southeastern Lenoir Rhyne took four first places out of a possible twelve: Mary Beth Kuhn in Duplicate Debating, Joel Herren in Argumentation, Weston Hatfield in the Men's and Inez Seagle in the Women's Radio Contest. In the South Atlantic the women debaters, Josephine Moretz and Inez Seagle, affirmative, and Peggy Setzer and Mary Beth Kuhn, negative, won seven out of eight debates and the South Atlantic women's championship. While the men, Vance Daniel and Joe Caldwell, affirmative, and Weston Hatfield and Joel Herren, negative, fared less well, Jack Mauney tied for second place in the State Oratorical Contest. In the individual contests for women Lenoir Rhyne received five firsts out of a possible seven. Inez Seagle winning in women's problem solving and formulating group opinion with a tie in stimulating group discussion, Alda Gregory placing first in women's oratory, women's impromptu, and women's extempore. Lenoir Rhyne made the best all round record, not even considering various second and third places in these and other tournaments.

On March 28-29 Josephine Moretz and Inez Seagle met the University of Vermont men's negative team in a non-decision debate at Hickory.

April 28-29 Weston Hatfield and Joel Herren took part in the Pi Kappa Delta Provincial Tournament at Farmville, Virginia, winning third place in debate, and Weston Hatfield ranking second in after-dinner speaking. Finally on May 5, Jack Mauney won second place and thirty dollars in the N. C. Peace Oratorical Contest at Wake Forest College.

Dr. Albert Keiser, the forensic coach, was re-elected Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the N. C. I. F. A. and director of the South Atlantic Tournament, and also Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the N. C. Association of Teachers of Speech. He likewise continued as State Chairman of the N. C. Intercollegiate Peace Association.

The Playmakers have enjoyed a very successful year. "Arms And The Man," by George Bernard Shaw, was selected for the fall production, and two highly successful performances were given on the stage of the Paramount Theatre in Hickory.

After defeating Catawba College, "The Woman Who Understood Men," by Kirkpatrick, was presented in the finals of the play production contest at the Drama Festival in Chapel Hill. "White Lightnin'," an original play by Frances Gilbert, was placed in the finals of the Playwriting Contest.

Our annual Spring Drama Week will begin with the presentation at the Paramount Theatre of Mrs. Pearl Setzka Deal's Bible play, "Ecclesia Plantanda." Original plays of students to be given are: "Holier Than Thou," by Eunice Cook, "My Sister," by Juanita Anderson, "Castle Pinckney" by Dorothy Grimes, and "After Gettysburg," by Marshall Mauneay.

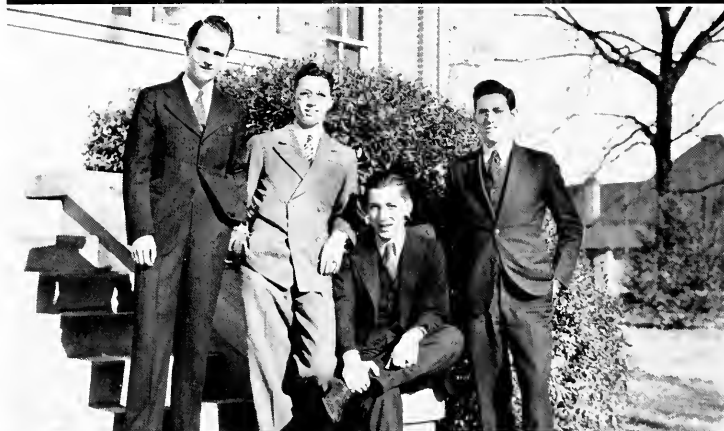

As a climax to the whole year, we plan to present Kaufman and Hart's "You Can't Take it With You" as the commencement play at the Paramount Theatre.

THE LETTERMEN'S CLUB

The Lettermen's Club of Lenoir Rhyne College is an organization of which any Lenoir Rhyne man is proud to be a member. It is made up of all athletes who have earned a letter in football, basketball, baseball, or tennis, and the student managers of these sports.

The club seeks to elevate sportsmanship and to improve athletics on the campus, and does all in its power to accomplish these aims.

Last year the club sponsored a dance and operated the concession stand during the football season, thus raising sufficient funds to present awards to all Senior lettermen. These awards were presented to the boys at a meeting of the student body.

Working toward the betterment of athletics and for a greater Lenoir Rhyne, the Lettermen's Club has grown to be one of the most outstanding among campus organizations.

COACHING STAFF

Since he came to Lenoir Rhyne as head coach nine years ago, R. M. "Pat" Shores has been one of the most familiar and best-liked figures on our campus. "Pat" graduated from Maryville College, where he was an outstanding athlete throughout his career. Possessing a thorough knowledge of the sports which he coaches, he has turned out many fine teams and athletes at Lenoir Rhyne.

Last year's baseball team was one of the finest ever to represent this school, winning the North State pennant with the loss of only three games. This year Coaches Shores and Stasavich put a powerful football team on the gridiron, sharing the loop championship with Appalachian. A dearth of material resulted in a rather poor season in basketball, but the baseball team is again a contender for the championship.

Clarence P. Stasavich, one of the greatest athletes ever to graduate from Lenoir Rhyne, returned to his Alma Mater last year, and has done much toward advancement of athletics at this institution. Serving as line coach in football, he built up what was unquestionably the most powerful forward wall in the conference.

"Stas" is coach of the Freshman basketball team, coach of tennis, and has built up an excellent program of intramural sports.

This year's football team was one of the most powerful gridiron aggregations ever to represent Lenoir Rhyne College. No team in the football history of the Bear institution has ever made a record equal to the one stacked up by this eleven. Sharing the championship of the North State Conference with the Appalachian Mountaineers, the Bruins won six games, tied three, and lost one contest to a non-conference foe.

LENOIR RHYNE 13—ROANOKE 0

The Bears opened the season by touring to Salem, Virginia, to tangle with a strong Roanoke College eleven. Displaying a powerful attack and an even mightier defense, they overpowered the Maroons and returned to Lenoir Rhyne ready for the first conference game.

LENOIR RHYNE 32—HIGH POINT 7

In the first home game of the season the Bears crushed the Panthers of High Point under a 32-0 score. The Lenoir Rhyne team scored almost at will, tallying three times in the first half and twice in the final periods. High Point was able to push over a touchdown when the firing variety was removed to give the reserves experience. Ripple stood out in the line, while Longenberger, Arndt, Quinn, and Ream were backfield spark plugs.

LENOIR RHYNE 31—W. C. T. C. 0

Continuing their victorious march, the Bruins smothered Western Carolina at Cullowhee under an avalanche of touchdowns, finishing the game with a thirty-one point margin of victory. "Cockey" Neal, dynamic quarterback, led the attack, leading in yardage gained, and accounting for two tallies. Caldwell, Ripple, and Persianoff were stellar performers in the line.

LENOIR RHYNE 10—ELON 0

When Elon's mighty Christians invaded the college field the Bears were given their first real test against a strong loop foe. For the first time in six years Lenoir Rhyne came out on the long end of the score, winning 10-0. Ream, plunging fullback, accounted for all scoring, kicking a field goal and diving over for a touchdown, then kicking the extra point. The entire Lenoir Rhyne team played a stellar game.

LENOIR RHYNE 20—GUILFORD 0

The Bruins met unexpected resistance when they met the Quakers at Guilford Station, and were outplayed in the first quarter. They came back strong in the later periods, however, and emerged with a 20-0 win. Armit, Longenberger, and Neal were backfield stars, with "Savage," Tucker, Cline, and Ripple best in the forward wall.

LENOIR RHYNE 20—NEWBERRY 20

Trailing 20-7 in the third quarter of this contest, the Bears roared back in the waning minutes of the game to gain a tie and preserve their undefeated record, "Rabbit" Quinn scoring the final touchdown in the last quarter.

LENOIR RHYNE 21—NAVAL APPRENTICE

Journeying to Newport to play a non-conference game with the Shipbuilders of Naval Apprentice, the Bears pushed the hefty sailors all over the field, emerging with an easy victory. Ream, Longenberger, and Caldwell accounted for the scores.

LENOIR RHYNE 6—APPALACHIAN 6

When the Mountaineers of Appalachian invaded the Bear precincts late in the season, it appeared that the loop championship hinged on the result. The favored Mountaineers scored first when Broome, fleet fullback, raced fifty-two yards to score. In the second half the Bears scored within three plays after the whistle, Caldwell receiving a pass from Longenberger while standing in the end zone. No further tallies were racked up, and the Bears continued undefeated. Bill Tucker, end, and Klynt Ripple, guard, were mainstays in the Lenoir Rhyne attack and defense.

LENOIR RHYNE 14—KING 20

All good things must end, and the Bears finally bowed to a powerful King College aggregation in a non-conference setto. A question still remains in the minds of those who saw this game, for Ream dived over with what was believed to be the tying touchdown in the closing seconds of the game. However, officials declared that the score was made after the game was over, so the Bears lost their unblemished record. Ripple and Ream were standouts in the losing fight.

LENOIR RHYNE 7—CATAWBA 7

In the final game of the 1939 season the Bears pushed Catawba's Indians up and down the field, threatening often, but scoring only once. Fumbles proved costly in this encounter, one leading to an Indian tally, the other costing the Bears a winning marker. Conrad, Persianoff, and Garrett were blocks of granite in the line, with Arndt and Quinn most effective on offense.

SAMPEL, Alternate Captain, MANDO, Captain, RIPLE, HAMRICK, GIBSON, GURLEY.

BASKETBALL

The basketball team, weakened by the graduation of such hardwood greats as Felix Little, Joe Amendola, and Bill Tucker, and the failure of Chester Herdzig to return to school, had one of the most disastrous seasons in many years. If the score book recorded the courage of a team, this year's quintet would rank with the best ever produced at Lenoir Rhyne, but unfortunately the little book carries only the account of wins and losses.

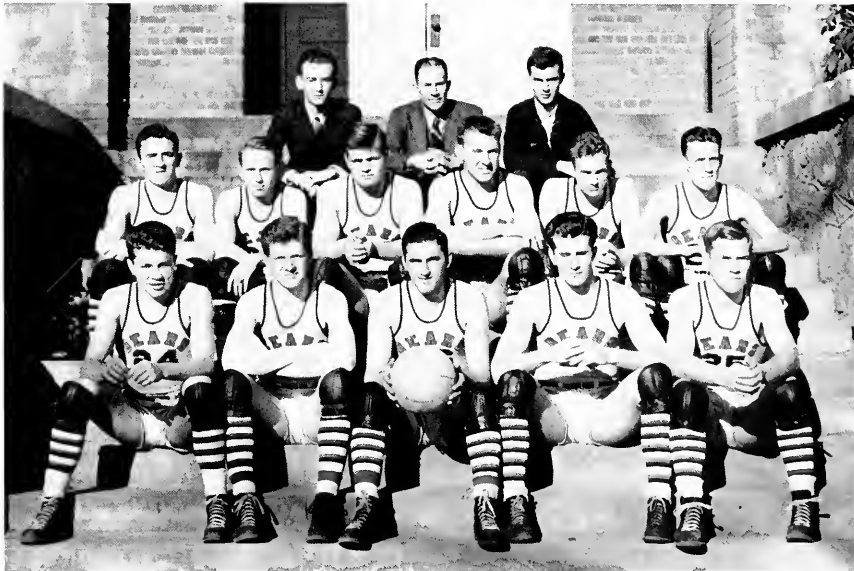

Severely handicapped by a dearth of material, Coach R. M. "Pat" Shores fashioned a team from two regulars from last year's team, Captain Mando and Herb Sampsel, the remainder of the quintet being composed of reserves with comparatively little experience.

Graduation will again take a heavy toll from the team, Sampsel, Mando, and Charles Brown leaving by this route. Prospects are somewhat brightened for next year, however, by the excellent showing made this year by the undergraduate members of the team.

BASEBALL

The Lenoir Rhyne baseball team of 1939 was probably the greatest ever to represent the college on the diamond. Displaying tremendous power at the plate, combined with excellent pitching and fielding, the Bears won fifteen games and lost three, clinching the North State Championship with a thrilling 9-8 victory over the Elon Christians. The three losses were each by the narrow margin of a single run.

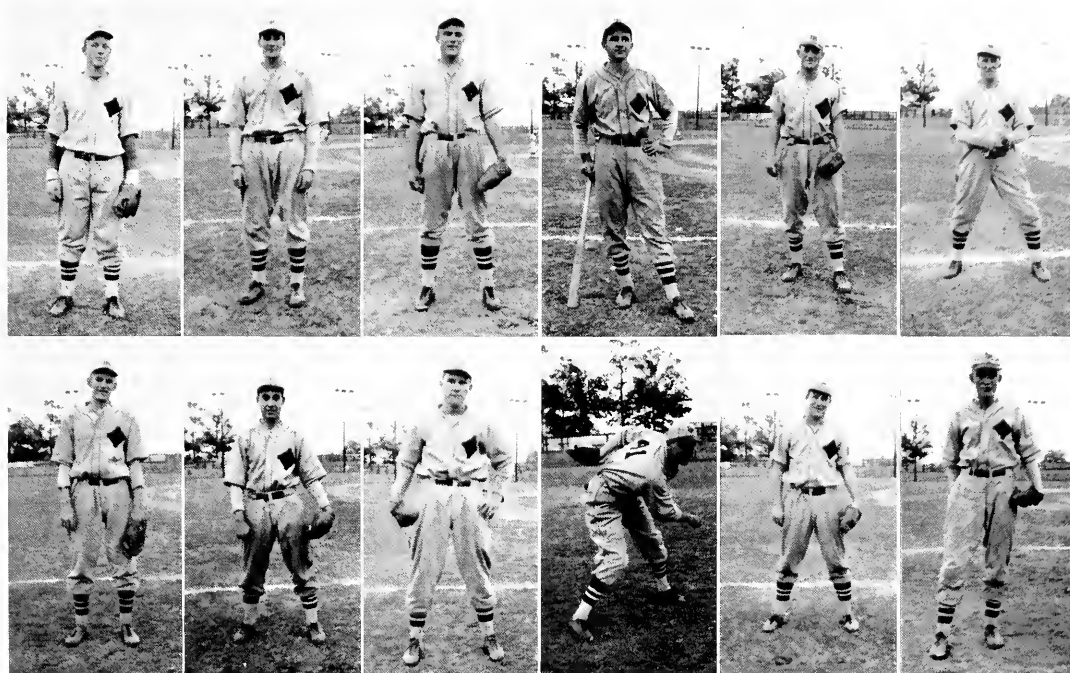

The leaders in the batting were Herb Sampsel with a swat average of .455 and Jim Garrett with .446. Others hitting over the three hundred mark were Deal, McSwain, Herdzig, and Quinn.

The team batting average was .313, the fielding average .945. Co-Captain Felix Little was the ace of the mound staff, winning seven games against one loss.

This year the Bear nine has again made a strong bid for the loop crown. They have so far won seven games in competition with college teams, while losing three, one of the losses being to Davidson, a non-conference foe. They are now entering the final stretch, all remaining games to be played on the home field.

TENNIS

The Lenoir Rhyne tennis team has always been one of the strongest athletic organizations to represent the college. The 1939 crew proved to be no exception. The netters ended the season in second place in the loop, winning six meets and losing three. One of the losses was to a powerful Wayne University net team, the other two to Guilford College, pennant winners for the year.

Thirty-seven victories were racked up in singles, as against sixteen defeats. In doubles the netters recorded fifteen wins and six losses.

The team was made up of Jack Mauney, Wilfred Hahn, Captain Bill Kennady, Berge Beam, Leslie Conrad, and David Conrad, playing positions in the order listed.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

The first-year basketball team fared no better than did their older brothers, winning only two games while losing five. The material was far from good, many of the lads lacking in both size and experience. Coach Stasavich tutored the young hopefuls, and, despite their rather unimpressive records, a number of them showed promise of developing into varsity material.
